

What is İstanbul International Opera Audition?

İstanbul International Opera Audition" is an organization primarily for Opera Artists to open doors to prestigious Opera Houses in Europe. It's open to all nationalities.

Which opera houses are coming for the audition?

We invite some of the most important opera directors and opera artist's managers to the audition. Some of the these opera directors and managers are as follows; Saltzburger Osterfestspiele, Nationaltheater Mannheim, Oper Graz, Oper Wuppertal, Staatsoper Stuttgart, Theater Heidelberg, Theater Magdeburg, IOA Management Artist Manager Kalle Kanttila and TACT International Art Management Oliver Kretschmer.

Eligibility

It's open to all opera artists and singers. No diploma requirement. It's open to all nationalities.

Benefits of this audition

It's a very difficult to have an appointment for an audition to some of the big opera houses in Europe. The visa requirements, flight expenses, hotel costs, weather conditions, language difficulties are some of the main concerns for majority of artists. With this audition, we invite between 12 to 15 opera directors and managers. Therefore, all these difficulties will be solved and Opera Artists will have a chance to audition for 12- 15 major opera houses with only one fee in Istanbul. They will save up thousands of euros and they will be welcomed in a concert house they can reach with a taxi ride.

For more info please send us an e-mail: bilimvesanatkosku@gmail.com

